Mohamed Sayed

Full Stack Developer trainee (MEARN Stack) at Information Technology Institute (ITI)

6th of October

Summary

»»» I believe that "Genius is 1% inspiration, 99% perspiration".

»»» I'm graduated from the faculty of engineering mechatronics department but my passion for IT and computer science made me decide to shift my career to web development.

»»» In my opinion, my career, my passion, my life have been started when I retired from my previous job in the last of 2020 and decide to study programming to shift my career to full-stack development.

»»» I have participated in many tech programs where I have been trained to have both technical and soft skills and I have also acquired high-level programming knowledge from taking online courses on Udemy, Pluralsight, NTI, and ITI, and I keep learning till now

Experience

Information Technology Institute (ITI)
ITI MEARN Stack trainee
December 2021 - Present (4 months)
El Mansoura, Ad Daqahliyah, Egypt

Huawei
Electromechanical Engineer
2015 - 2020 (5 years)
Egypt

I worked as an electromechanical engineer in diesel generators maintenance for Huawei company.

One of my key achievements is doing some enhancement in the October area and my area was ranked first in all Egypt in the lack of generators failures every month.
